Northeast Campus

Family Practice Teaching Service
Altru Health System - Grand Forks Family Practice Residency

FMED 9312

Faculty Director: Gregory D. Greek, M.D. & Marc Nielson, M.D.
Offered: All
Positions: 1
Purpose: Learn to apply knowledge to everyday situations in a hospital setting.

Objectives of the Elective:

1. Evaluation and management of hospitalized patients in the Family Practice Teaching Service.
2. Evaluation and management of outpatients in the Grand Forks Family Practice Residency Clinic.

Instructional Activities:

1. Hospital rounds on the Family Practice Teaching Service.
2. Patient work-ups in hospital.
3. Outpatient clinic.
4. Medical, pediatric, geriatric, and behavioral science lectures of the family practice residency program.

Standards of Performance (Outcomes) Indicating Attainment of Objectives:

1. Student will be able to appropriately evaluate and effectively manage, under supervision, patients with undifferentiated problems who require hospitalization.
2. Student will be able to appropriately evaluate and effectively manage, under supervision, patients with undifferentiated problems presenting to the Grand Forks Family Practice Residency Clinic.

Criteria for Grading:

A written evaluation will be presented to the student and to the assistant dean for the appropriate campus.

Revised: Dec 2014