ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

UND MLS Summer Practicum 2018
(Subject to Change)

Additional expenses that may or will be incurred by students during summer practicum are listed below:

- TB tuberculin skin test (two are required at $16.00 each................................. $32.00

- Fluid resistant lab coat (for students who do not have one):
  Cost:
  Used lab coat from UND MLS club................................................................. $15.00
  New lab coat purchased from UND bookstore................................. $39.00
  https://www.bkstr.com/northdakotastore/home

- Background check ................................................................. $40.00

- UND Identification card (U card) (for students who do not currently have one)..... $20.00
  http://und.edu/student-life/ucard/

- Campus parking permit for summer semester ........................................ $39.00
  http://und.edu/finance-operations/parking-transportation/permits/student.cfm

- Health Insurance ................................................................................... Varies

- Drug Screen .......................................................................................... Varies
  Some clinical sites require this.

Note: These are approximate and cannot be guaranteed to change by the time summer practicum begins.

Note: These are in addition to tuition, UND housing, textbooks, course packet costs, etc.

Please email the MLS Administrative Assistant, MaryBeth McGurran if you have a question or concern.
(marybeth.mcguiran@med.und.edu).