Physical Therapy Opportunity
RUSHVILLE, ILLINOIS

Sarah D. Culbertson Memorial Hospital (CMH), a 22-bed Critical Access Hospital in Rushville, Illinois is seeking a Physical Therapist to join their team.

- 90% of time handling outpatients at Dr. Robert E. Cox Memorial Therapy Clinic in Rushville and the satellite clinic in Beardstown
- 10% of time serving the acute and swing bed patients in the hospital
- Constant variety of patients as well as treatment plans
- 25% referrals from CMH, 75% from surrounding hospitals
- Competitive salary with education debt repayment
- Collaboration with a charismatic and engaging team
- Excellent work/life balance with no weekend coverage and minimal holidays
- Opportunity for professional growth

RUSHVILLE, ILLINOIS
Rushville, Illinois is a charming, small town located in west central Illinois, surrounded by communities such as Macomb, Springfield, and Peoria. In addition to the picturesque downtown square with flower shops, a movie theater, and jewelry stores, there is an 18-hole golf course and a brand-new swimming pool in town. The local school district is supported by the community and has prominent athletic and performing arts programs.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Call: 866.311.0000
Text: 309.838.7523
loretta@adkissonsearch.com

Follow us online & on social media.
www.adkissonconsultants.com