

University of North Dakota (UND) School of Medicine and Health Sciences
(SMHS)
Chair, Department of Radiology

Position Description

Provides leadership in the Department of Radiology

Reporting Relationship

The Chair will report to the Senior Associate Dean for Medicine and Research

Specific Responsibilities

The position of Chair of the Department of Radiology will have a number of specific responsibilities, which include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Advise and mentor students with regard to radiology career choices
- Personally engage in teaching pre-clinical and clinical UND learners as needed, including medical, and health professional students; and residents, and fellows
- Serve as a subject matter expert to advise the faculty in integrating radiology into the medical school curriculum
- Recruit and retain clinical faculty in radiology and manage the affairs of the department, such as promotion and tenure
- Mentor and support clinical faculty in their interactions with UND learners.
- Encourage scholarship in radiology by departmental faculty and associated learners
- Participate in faculty governance at SMHS in parallel with the other clinical chairs, including attendance at regular clinical chairs' meetings, such as Faculty Council (FC); Clinical Chairs; and Clinical Sciences Curriculum Subcommittee, etc.