Carr and Kathryn Shahwan also met personally with students. Of the abstracts submitted, 34 were poster presentations, 98 were video presentations. Scholarly commons information was provided to students as requested. Occupational Therapy had the largest group of submissions. Abstracts were reviewed and scored. 43 abstracts were scored above 20 and were moved forward with distinction. There was a better turn out of judges this year. Discussed the student zoom room – how it went for presenting and for feedback. Discussed having in-person and virtual sessions for each student, that would likely conflict with student class schedules.
