PROCEDURES

I. Faculty/Standing/Programmatic Committees

- i. Committee Member Responsibility: An individual who feels they have a COI must communicate the conflict to the committee chair prior to the meeting in question. If an individual realizes they are in conflict after a deliberation has begun, it is the responsibility of that individual to voice their concerns to the committee and committee chair and recuse themselves from further deliberations and decisions made on subject.

If the chair has a COI, then it is the responsibility of the chair to recuse themselves from deliberations and decisions made on the subject, having first temporarily delegated to another committee member the responsibilities of the chair.

- ii. Committee Chair Responsibilities: It is the responsibility of the committee chair to ensure that the committee members are familiar with this policy. It is the responsibility of the committee chair to assess a COI in an effort to maintain the credibility and standards expected of that committee. In the situation in which the chair or committee member brings forward a concern that another committee member may have a conflict of interest, it is the responsibility of the chair to adjudicate the matter. The committee chair may consult with the Dean's Office when a situation arises in which a COI is not clearly defined. All SMHS committee chairs must take appropriate action when a COI is made known and record the COI in the committee's minutes.

RESPONSIBILITIES

FC, Standing, Programmatic, and Other SMHS Committee members	Take appropriate action when a COI arises
Chair of FC or chair of a SMHS Committee	Manage COI and consult with the Dean's Office as appropriate
Faculty/Staff/Fellows/Residents/Students	Bring forward questions of COI

Dean's Office	Provide consultation to the chair of FC and the chairs of Standing, Programmatic and other SMHS Committees.
