- A list of required textbooks can be found here. You are encouraged to purchase textbooks as opposed to renting. Books, lecture notes, and assignments will be used throughout the entire Professional Program.
- Final Exams will be held for each course, typically from 9-11am on the last scheduled course day. The next course will start immediately after the final exam is finished, and may include a required live/synchronous course introduction.
- Each course instructor will provide a detailed course schedule to you at the start of the course. Note that courses will likely have some required meeting times, typically 9:00-10:00am each day (9:00-11:00am on final exam days), a synchronous course introduction, and possibly others.
- Students must notify instructors prior to their courses with any absence requests. Each instructor will determine how the absence will affect the student's final grade.

ADDITIONAL SCHEDULE ITEMS

Progress Sessions

Progress sessions are one-on-one meetings with MLS faculty/staff to talk about how things are going, ask questions, and discuss program feedback. Your progress session coordinator will reach out to you (likely via email) with more details closer to the start of the sessions. You will participate in three separate progress sessions during the summer semester, sometime during the following weeks: Week of May 26th; Week of June 23rd; Week of July 28th.

Fall Semester Information Session

During the week of June 23rd, 2024, a session will be held to go over details of the on-campus fall semester and answer student questions.
