SECTION I

Photograph Release

I hereby grant to the University of North Dakota (“University”) the perpetual right to use, reproduce, exhibit, display, broadcast, distribute and create derivative works of University-related photographic or video recorded images of me. This grant includes, without limitation, the right to publish such images in the University’s student newspaper, alumni magazines, on the University’s Web site, and on public relations/promotional materials, such as marketing and admissions publications. These images may appear in any of the wide variety of formats and media now available to University and that may be available in the future, including but not limited to print, video, and electronic/online media.

I understand that some photographs of enrolled students may be considered educational records under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), and that by granting this Release I hereby give University my consent to use such educational records for the purposes set forth above.

I hereby waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising from or related to the use by University of the images, and I waive any claim of ownership over any image or copyright therein.

I, the undersigned participant, affirm that I am at least 18 years of age and am freely signing this agreement. If not 18 years of age, a parent or legal guardian must sign and state relationship to the attending student. I have read this form and terms of this release.

If only one parent/guardian signature appears below, I warrant that I am authorized to act on behalf of the non-signing parent or guardian.

FOR RECOMMENDER:
The Indians Into Medicine Summer Institute Program (INMED SI), is a six week highly intense academic enrichment program for 7th – 12th graders who focus in a collegial setting at the University of North Dakota in the subjects of Biology, Chemistry, and Physics with labs, Health, Math, and Research and Presentations in Communications. During INMED SI, students also stay in college dorms, are supervised by counseling staff, and have health and wellness activities to include but not limited to field trips to advance their educational aspects of INMED SI.

A student must be committed to completing the six week program with the intention of advancing their academic pathway toward a career in the health or medical field and to matriculate into college. As a recommender we request you to be truthful and candid about the applicant’s ability to perform in the six week academic enrichment and collegial setting.

Recommender can be a counselor, teacher, coach, etc. but not a relative of the applicant. Recommender must submit the following:

1. A typed recommendation using 500 words or less to describe:
   a) How have you come to know and what is your relationship to the applicant?
   b) Why are you recommending this applicant for the INMED Summer Institute Program?
   c) What are some attributes you feel are important for us to know about the applicant?
   d) How do you think this applicant will benefit from our academic enrichment program?
   e) Any academic, behavioral, needs, or other concerns for the applicant our program should consider? The typed recommendation letter must be completed, signed, and submitted to INMED by the Recommender (NOT the student) via E-mail or Mail by March 1, 2018. (See end of form) If these documents are not received from the Recommender by this date the student’s application will not be considered complete.
