

FRANK LOW RESEARCH DAY
Thursday, April 22, 2021 - 8:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Frank Low Poster Sessions I and II

7:00 AM - 5:00 PM

All recorded presentations available for viewing throughout the day (See Website for list)

9:30-10:30 AM

Live Q&A Session I: Basic Sciences Postdocs & Occupational Therapy Graduate Students

10:30-11:30 AM

Live Q&A Session II: Basic Sciences & Occupational Therapy Graduate Students and Undergraduates

Keynote Lecture: “Recent progress advancing the National plan to address AD and related dementias”

12:00-1:00 PM

Recorded Presentation - Will be live on the website at this time

<https://med.und.edu/research/frank-low>

Keynote Speaker: Eliezer Masliah, MD, Director of the Division of Neuroscience at the National Institute on Aging.

Frank Low Poster Sessions III and IV

1:00-2:00 PM

Live Q&A Session III: Medical Students & Public Health Graduate Students

2:00-3:00 PM

Live Q&A Session IV: Medical Students & Medical Residents